RESUME OF CAPT MICHAEL A. CERVI

Michael A. Cervi was born in 1959 in Detroit, Michigan. He graduated from the University of Michigan in 1982 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Electrical Engineering, and was commissioned through the U.S. Air Force Officer Training School in April 1983. He also earned a Master of Science degree in Systems Technology (Joint Command, Control, and Communications) from the Naval Postgraduate School in 1992.

After commissioning, Capt Cervi completed the Communications-Electronics Engineering course at Keesler AFB, MS, and was assigned to Headquarters, Tactical Communications Division, Langley AFB, VA as Chief of Long-Haul Systems. Capt Cervi's next assignment was to Detachment 1, Air Force Communications Command Operational Test and Evaluation Center, Fort Huachuca, AZ, where he served as test engineer and detachment test director prior to accepting command in 1989. In June of 1992, he joined the Electrical Engineering Department of the Naval Postgraduate School as a military instructor, teaching electronic communications for C3, Space Operations, and Information Technology Management students.

Capt Cervi is a 1987 graduate of the Squadron Officer School at Maxwell AFB, AL. His decorations include the Air Force Meritorious Service Medal and Air Force Commendation Medal. He is married to the former Melanie Witt of Hillsboro, Oregon. They have two young children, Anthony and Stephanie.
